15 June 2023

To the Initial Purchasers party to the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement referred to below, at their respective addresses set forth in Schedule I to that agreement

Re: Issuance of 175,000,000.00 Aggregate Principal Amount of 7.750% Senior Notes due 2031

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Reference is made to the Indenture and the Notes described in the caption above. This letter is furnished pursuant to Section 2(f) of the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement.

We have acted as special counsel to the Issuer in connection with the issuance and sale by the Issuer of the above-referenced notes (the "Notes") pursuant to the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement and the Indenture, each dated as of the date of this letter, between the Issuer and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee. This opinion is delivered to you pursuant to Section 2 of the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this letter have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this letter have the meanings given to them in the Indenture, and, unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to a Section of the Indenture is a reference to that Section as in effect on the date of this letter.

DOCUMENTS REVIEWED

In rendering the opinions expressed below, we have examined originals or copies of the Indenture, the Notes, the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, the Issuer's certificate of incorporation and bylaws (or equivalent organizational documents), resolutions of the Issuer's board of directors authorizing the transactions described above, an officers' certificate of the Issuer, a good standing certificate of the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation dated within a reasonably recent date of this letter, and such other corporate records, certificates of public officials, and other documents as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of this opinion.

ASSUMPTIONS

In such examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to authentic originals of all documents submitted to us as copies, and the legal capacity of all natural persons executing any document. We have also assumed that each party to the Indenture and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement other than the Issuer has duly authorized, executed, and delivered such documents, and that such documents constitute the legal, valid, and binding obligation of each such other party, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.

We have also assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the factual matters set forth in the officers' certificate of the Issuer referred to above, and, as to matters of fact, we have relied on that certificate, on certificates of public officials, and on representations made to us by officers of the Issuer, in each case without independent verification of the matters so certified or represented. We have not been engaged to, and have not, conducted any independent factual investigation regarding the transactions described above, and this opinion does not extend to any factual matter, however material, unless expressly stated above.

We have further assumed that the Indenture and the Notes conform in all material respects to the drafts of those documents that we reviewed immediately prior to their execution and delivery, and that no amendment or modification was made to either document between the time of our review and the time of execution and delivery that would affect the opinions expressed below.

OPINIONS

Based upon and subject to the foregoing assumptions and the qualifications set forth below, and having considered such questions of law as we have deemed necessary as a basis for the opinions expressed below, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Issuer is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of incorporation.

2. The Issuer has the corporate power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform its obligations under the Indenture, the Notes, and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement.

3. The Indenture and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement have each been duly authorized, executed, and delivered by the Issuer.

4. The Notes have been duly authorized by the Issuer and, when duly executed by the Issuer and authenticated by the Trustee in accordance with the Indenture and delivered against payment therefor as contemplated by the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, will constitute the legal, valid, and binding obligations of the Issuer, enforceable against the Issuer in accordance with their terms.

5. The execution and delivery by the Issuer of the Indenture, the Notes, and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, and the performance by the Issuer of its obligations thereunder, do not violate the Issuer's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, result in a breach of any material agreement known to us to which the Issuer is a party, or violate any applicable law, in each case except as would not be material.

6. No consent, approval, authorization, or order of, or filing with, any governmental authority or regulatory body is required for the Issuer's execution, delivery, and performance of the Indenture, the Notes, and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, other than such as have already been obtained or made.

7. We have no actual knowledge of any action, suit, or proceeding pending or threatened against the Issuer that questions the validity of the Indenture, the Notes, or the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, or that, if adversely determined, would materially and adversely affect the Issuer's ability to perform its obligations thereunder.

8. The Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended (the "TIA"), to the extent required in connection with the offering and sale of the Notes contemplated by the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement, and the Indenture contains the provisions required by Sections 310 through 317 of the TIA to the extent those provisions are required to be contained therein.

9. The Issuer is not required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, solely as a result of the issuance and sale of the Notes as contemplated by the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement.

10. The execution and delivery by the Issuer of the Indenture, the Notes, and the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement do not, to our actual knowledge, violate or result in a default under the Credit Agreement, and the incurrence of the Notes as contemplated thereby is permitted under the provisions of the Credit Agreement governing the incurrence of Indebtedness that we have reviewed for purposes of this opinion; we express no opinion, however, as to any financial covenant or other provision of the Credit Agreement requiring a calculation based on the Issuer's financial statements, compliance with which is a factual and not a legal matter.

QUALIFICATIONS

The opinions expressed above are subject to (a) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, and other similar laws affecting the rights and remedies of creditors generally, (b) general principles of equity, including concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith, and fair dealing, regardless of whether such principles are considered in a proceeding at law or in equity, and (c) the effect of applicable public policy on the enforceability of provisions relating to indemnification.

We express no opinion as to compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or any state securities law, in connection with the offer, sale, or resale of the Notes, including under Rule 144A or Regulation S thereunder; a separate letter addresses those matters. We express no opinion as to the perfection, priority, or enforceability of any security interest, because the Notes are unsecured as of the date of this letter and no Notes Lien has arisen under the Indenture. We express no opinion as to any law other than the federal law of the United States and the law of the State of New York.

The opinions in paragraphs 1 through 3 and 8 through 9 above, insofar as they relate to matters of the law of the Issuer's jurisdiction of incorporation other than the general corporation law of that jurisdiction, are given in reliance on an opinion of local counsel in that jurisdiction of even date herewith, a copy of which has been furnished to you, and are subject to the assumptions, qualifications, and limitations set forth in that opinion, without independent investigation by us of the matters covered thereby.

Whenever an opinion expressed above is qualified by the phrase "to our actual knowledge" or a phrase of similar import, it means the conscious awareness, without independent investigation or inquiry, of the lawyers in this firm who have given substantive attention to the transactions described above; we have not made, and this opinion should not be understood as implying that we have made, any independent review of court or administrative dockets, and we have relied, without independent verification, on a certificate of a Responsible Officer of the Issuer as to the factual matters underlying that opinion.

This opinion speaks only as of its date. We assume no obligation to advise you of any change in law, or in any fact underlying the opinions expressed above, that may occur after the date of this letter, even if such a change would affect the conclusions expressed herein, and we undertake no obligation to update or supplement this opinion.

We are furnishing this opinion solely as counsel to the Issuer and not in any other capacity, and nothing in this letter shall be construed as creating an attorney-client relationship between this firm and any addressee of this letter. This opinion is not to be used, circulated, quoted, or otherwise referred to for any purpose, or filed with or furnished to any governmental agency or other Person, without our prior written consent, other than in connection with a regulatory examination of an addressee that is a financial institution or as required by applicable law or legal process.

RELIANCE

This opinion is furnished to you solely in connection with the transactions described above, is limited to the matters expressly stated herein, and may not be relied upon for any other purpose or by any other Person without our prior written consent, except that a Person that becomes an assignee of the Initial Purchasers' rights under the Note Purchase and Registration Rights Agreement in accordance with its terms may rely on this opinion as if it were an original addressee.

This opinion is subject to, and should be read together with, the assumptions and qualifications set forth above, each of which is an integral part of, and not merely a preface to, the opinions expressed in this letter.

Very truly yours,

[Special Counsel to the Issuer]

A copy of this letter, without exhibits, may be furnished to the rating agencies that rate the Notes solely for their information, on the understanding that this letter is not addressed to, and may not be relied upon by, any rating agency.