TRANSCRIPT — “ARDEN THIS WEEK”

Broadcast 25 August 2025 (excerpt)

PRESENTER. Senator, your bill has passed. Will the Governor sign it?

SENATE SPONSOR. I hope so. He has asked for advice and that is his right.

PRESENTER. The Capital Daily says the bill is right in principle and sloppy in execution. Four changes made late in the session, each one warned about by your own counsel.

SENATE SPONSOR. Sessions end. We made choices. I would make most of them again.

PRESENTER. Most.

SENATE SPONSOR. The severability clause I would put back. There was no reason to take it out and I do not know why it went.

PRESENTER. And the coverage test? The Petroleum Council says the largest sellers may not be covered at all.

SENATE SPONSOR. I have heard that said and I do not accept it. The test is a proportion. Anyone selling into Arden at scale meets it.

PRESENTER. A proportion of what?

SENATE SPONSOR. Of their revenue from these products.

PRESENTER. Their revenue everywhere, or in Arden?

SENATE SPONSOR. Their revenue from the products. I would have to look at the text.

PRESENTER. We will leave it there. After the break, the ferry schedule.

Transcript lightly edited for length. Full broadcast available from the station.
